*Please note that it is rare to find a Labrador retriever who is a couch potato unless he or she is beyond middle age. Healthy adult dogs should have at least 30 minutes of aerobic activity daily, but many Labs require more than that.

Energy Level:

- High (dog will need plenty of aerobic exercise daily such as jogging, swimming, dog-dog play, or retrieving)
- Moderate (dog will need at least two walks daily plus some play indoors or in a fenced yard)
- Couch potato (dog will be happy with a couple of leisurely strolls or visits to a fenced yard daily)
